

Master of Arts in Counseling Program Outcome Report 2022-23 Academic Year

Program Summary

The Master of Arts in Counseling (MACO) program at Central Baptist Theological Seminary (Central) is focused on clinical mental health counseling and is designed to prepare students to sit for licensure exams and practice as a mental health professional. All courses are delivered synchronously.

Central is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission and Association of Theological Schools. Central is currently exploring options to earn Council for Accreditation of Counseling & Related Educational Programs (CACREP) accreditation for the MACO program.
