

Coordinating Board for Higher Education
P.O. Box 1469
Jefferson City, Missouri 65102

ACTION ON PROPRIETARY SCHOOL APPLICATION

The decision of the Coordinating Board for Higher Education on the application of:
Central Baptist Theological Seminary
620 North Grand Boulevard
St. Louis, Missouri 63103
for: certification to operate or exemption, pursuant to the provisions of Sections 173.600 through 173.619, RSMo is as follows:

CERTIFICATION TO OPERATE

- The application for certification to operate is approved. Please submit a security deposit within 30 days in the minimum amount listed below and comply with any other requirements as specified in the attached cover letter.

Required minimum security deposit

MAIL TO THE ATTENTION OF PROPRIETARY SCHOOL CERTIFICATION.

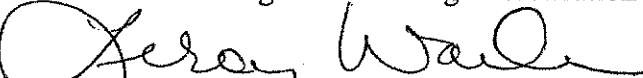

Forms for complying with the security deposit requirement are enclosed. Once these requirements have been met, you will be requested to remit the certification fee. DO NOT SUBMIT CERTIFICATION FEE AT THIS TIME. Upon payment of the certification fee, a certificate to operate for the period of issuance through June 30, 2014 will be issued in the name of the school specified above.

- The application for certification to operate is denied. (Denial of certification of approval to operate may be appealed to the Administrative Hearing Commission.) The reason(s) for denial of certification are stated in the attached cover letter. As a proposed school, the applicant is enjoined from commencing operations.

EXEMPTION

- The application for exemption is approved, subject to annual verification.
- The application for exemption is denied. (Denial of exemption may be appealed to the Administrative Hearing Commission.) Application for certification of approval to operate is enclosed and the school must submit application within 60 days of the date of this notice.

For the Coordinating Board for Higher Education

Signature

September 26, 2014

Date