

Do my homework

do my Homework for me

The main task of this work (only nine articles from the introductory to the final) was to show the evolutionary unity of the macromir, from non-living matter to the noosphere. To show that the consistent formation in time of fundamentally different states of matter is not live matter, live matter, noosphere due to uniform laws inherent in nonequilibrium multi-molecular systems.