The weekly children's and youth book is held in our country, as a rule, during the spring holidays, i.e, from March 26 to April 1, 2018. But in our building this holiday books, a holiday of joy from meeting with her, the holiday of recognition of new books and the holiday of all reading children was decided to hold not only during the holidays, but, given the specifics of our educational institution, extend a week, from April 2 April 06.

In 2018, the week of children's book in our building was devoted to the book and reading. Basically, all the events were addressed to the guys of secondary school age, since the cadets from 5 to 9 grades are now studying in the building. But nine-graders focused all efforts to prepare for OGE, so the guys from 5 to 8 grades take an active part in the week.

Is it time to read now, whether you need to read at all, why read what and how to read? Various formats of meetings with Cadets were devoted to these and similar issues on the topic: from discussion and classroom hours before interactive travel, games and quizzes.

Summary of the guys in the results of the week - the meaning of books and reading in the life of humanity is great and huge. The book is not only a source of knowledge, but also an inexhaustible source of life. You need to read - it's nice and useful! Read is stylish! Read is fashionable!
